

Five fairytale Christmas frocks

01 Buzzing: Sparkle like a glass of bubbly with these brilliant separates, featuring diamond detail. Asymetric hemline brings look right up to date. Top, £50, skirt, £70, by Maria Graziano

And you could win one of these stunning dresses

TRANSFORM yourself into a fairytale princess this Christmas in this season's hottest look – sexy modern mixed with vintage glam.

These silky dresses have all the class and sophistication of a more glamorous bygone era. But they are available on the high street brand new and in a range of sizes – something second-hand clothes can't match.

Team them with authentic second-hand jewellery and accessories for a captivating look. A vintage brooch adds drama to a scintillating gown, while a chocolate wrap necklace class to a classic dress. And diamond earrings or sparky braiding add dazzling impact to classic black or ivory cream and grey.

Our friends at Debenhams are giving Sunday Mail readers the chance to win their favourite dress. We have one of each party look to give away.

For a chance to win, simply name the ex-girlfriend of Hugh Grant who became famous for wearing "The" Versace dress. Then call 0900 562 8162 and leave your answer, name, address, daytime phone number and the two-digit number next to the dress you would like. Lines close at noon, December 16. Cash cost 60p per minute. Small Sunday Mail rules apply.

• Pictures: ALAN PEBBLES. Styling: SUSIE CORNACK. Hair and make-up: Katherine Orr at Taylor Ferguson. All dresses from DESIGNERS at Debenhams, jewellery from Saratoga Trunk. Shot on location at Saratoga Trunk, Glasgow.

02 Scapoli red wrap dress. Silky, floor-length, not quite thigh, £145, by Peacocks

04 Good enough to eat: Team a chocolate brooch like (left), Saratoga Trunk with an elegant Chanel-covered dress, £160 by Peacocks (front)

03 Ruffle feathers: Be the belle of the ball in a feminine grey silk dress with sequin straps, £120 by Matala (right), and (left) dramatic earrings

05 Real classic: Go for the Beyoncé look by embellishing your party frock in sophisticated black dress with diamante detail, £30, Peacocks (front)