Glasgow's best kept shopping secrets revealed

Make a Trunk call

YOU could spend hours in Saratoga Trunk, the largest vintage clothing store in Britain, on Hyde Park Street (just off Clyde Street) going through all their period and theatrical costumes. You can hire or buy an outfit and it's ideal for those looking for something to wear at parties, prom nights and balls.

A jewellery store that captures the Muse

MUSE is an ideal destination for the style-conscious. This amazing jewellery store will have fans of costume jewellery and all things 'bling' falling over themselves to get to the check out. Step in Muse, near the entrance to Silverburn, and you will be greeted by wall-to-wall earrings, bracelets, necklaces and bangles that will solve all your accessory needs. The only problem you will have is deciding what NOT to buy.

Coollest shop on the planet

Dubbed the "coolest shop on the planet", Felix and Oscar has been trading from the same site on Great Western Road for almost 10 years. They sell funky jewellery, women's clothes, home wares, gift cards and accessories.

A stunning statement

MAKE a statement with these ultra cool slogan scarves. Encrusted with jewels and rhinestones, and not available in the shops, these stylish scarves from up-and-coming Glasgow designer Jo Butler of Camp Bova are a must-have. Order at www.campbova.com

We're top dog

IF dogs went shopping, they would trot along on their four furry legs to Wizard of Paws on Glasgow's south side, adjacent to Nether Auldhouse Retail Park. Scotland's first exclusive One Stop Dog Shop has a grooming salon, a creche, and the UK's first 'self-service' dog washing complex!

Win at cards

IF you want to really impress a friend or relative or colleague on their special day, why not have a hand-made gift card? JTP Designs does that at bargain prices. To order a card with a one-off design, email JTP Designs at: jtpdesignsuk@yahoo.com
